

SAVE THE DATES!

2012 READY Camp June 25 - June 29, 2012

Bethel Horizons, Dodgeville, WI – next to Governor Dodge State Park

READY helps prepare youth to respond in unexpected situations that require immediate action until additional help arrives. It also inspires youth to take action in creating resilient and positive solutions to real and local needs in their school, neighborhood, and community through volunteer activities and community service learning projects. The curricula has been developed by leading educators and emergency responders.

Responding to Emergencies And Disasters with Youth

READY (Responding to Emergencies And Disasters with Youth) is a five-day summer camp that provides training to middle and high school youth, age 13 – 18, escorted by advisors.

Teams of students and an advisor from participating schools or community youth organizations can enroll. During camp students participate in mock disaster exercises and outdoor adventure activities, learning emergency preparedness skills such as:

- safety and injury prevention, first aid, CPR and AED
- preparation for terrorism, crime prevention, school security and disasters
- teamwork and communication while working through emergency situation scenarios
- development of citizenship, volunteerism and leadership
- and more!

There's only one READY Camp in 2012,
so mark your calendars!
